About the Institute

Being even older than Cochin University and established in 1964, School of Management Studies (SMS) carries a distinction of being one of the oldest business schools in the country. It is among the first five premier management institutions to be established in the country, with Professor Emeritus Padma Bushan (Dr.) M. V. Pylee as the Director. Its legacy, now spanning 56 years has seen it blossom into one of the most distinctive and respected institutions which has given the field of management numerous outstanding professionals. SMS's motto "Moulding Managers for Mankind" is conceived with the vision that future managers need to be groomed to become principled and socially responsible leaders. Eminent faculty members, a vibrant student community and an extensive alumni network have been the pillars of this business school. SMS offers an impressive suite of programs for students seeking management expertise.

- Four-Semester MBA Program (Full-Time)
- Six-Semester MBA Program (Part-Time)
- Two-Semester M.Phil Program
- Doctoral Program
- Post Doctoral Fellowship (PDF)

With consistent efforts and upgradation, School of Management Studies remains one of the top B-schools in the country. SMS aims at enabling exceptional learning experience to help prepare students with analytical decision-making capabilities that will influence business practices of tomorrow. Through a variety of conferences and workshops, SMS offers immense opportunities for students to enhance and expand the boundaries of their knowledge.

The School also supports the economically weak, yet extremely talented students to pursue their managerial dreams by providing the entire facility at a very affordable fee. School of Management Studies is in fact, an abode of knowledge, heritage and culture.
